Twisters Rip Through Milam County

OLD BOLLING GIN—A famous landmark in Gause was extensively damaged in Friday morning's tornado which tore through Milam County. The twister ripped through the heart of Gause, causing heavy damage and demolishing buildings as it went.

MRS. RAYMOND DEES was injured in the above home when the Friday morning twister hit. The home which belongs to George Black, is located in the Hanover community. Mrs. Dees was taken to Saint Edward Hospital where she is reported to be much improved Monday morning and was expecting to be released. Her husband and Mr. Black were also in the house at the time of the tornado's blast but not injured.

THE SALTY COMMUNITY, located between Rockdale and Gause was one of the Milam communities that was hardest hit. Shown above is the Tom Cuba house which was almost totally destroyed by the early Friday morning twister.

DAMAGE WAS HEAVY in the Gause community when homes such as the J. T. Todd above lost its roof when the roaring twister ripped through the county. Many homes in the county were totally destroyed such as the C. A. Grissom home in the Salty community, 12 miles southwest of Rockdale. The tornado hit Yarrellton, Minerva, Hanover, Sal y, Gause and Jones Prairie.

Twisters struck throughout Milam county early Friday morning causing heavy damage in some spots and light in others. Although there were several injuries, no deaths were reported.

According to unconfirmed reports the twisters struck at Yarrellton, Minerva, Hanover, Salty Gause and Jones Prairie.

An unconfirmed report in Gause stated that damage was both extensive and heavy.

One witness to the Gause incident stated that from her observation point about a mile out from the community, the twister seemed to dip down and rip through the heart of the town, demolishing buildings as it went.

Reports from the Salty Community stated that the Grissom and Cuba homes were demolished. One man was taken to Richard's Clinic in Rockdale but the extent of his injuries were not known. It was reported that he had to be dug from the wreck. (See Tornadoes - Page 4)

Red Cross To Assist Tornado Victims

Mrs. Loretto Webb of the National Home Service of the National Red Cross headquarters at St. Louis, Mo., arrived in Milam county to investigate the tornado damage which hit various parts of the county last Friday.

Carl Black, disaster program chairman, toured Gause, Minerva, and Salty last Friday. It was reported by Black that Mrs. Webb and he made an estimate of the losses on Tuesday and it will be reported to the National Red Cross.

Everyone's needs will be taken care of if they are specified now. Red Cross stations have been set up at Salty, Gause and at Hotel Cameron in Cameron. Needs should be registered now while Mrs. Webb is in the local area.

It was stressed that those who need assistance should make it known now as Mrs. Webb will be in this area only a few days.

Soil Should Be Conditioned To Hold All Rain Fall

What percent of the total rainfall is available for plant use on your farm? Due to poor soil condition and the slope of the land, the percentage may be much less than you would expect.

Water infiltration test made on a field in the Marlow Community showed that most of the water ran off the ground and was lost for plant use. The soil on which the test was made was a tight, mixed land, had very poor cover and was nearly level. Water was allowed to fall at the rate of one inch per hour and the run-off was caught and measured. The "rain" fell for two and a half hours, giving a total of two and one-half inches of water. Of this amount, 1.5 inches of water was run-off. If the test had been allowed to run for a longer period of time, the percentage of run-off would have increased. The one inch of water which stayed on the land penetrated the soil only six inches. When saturated, this soil is capable of holding about 2 inches of water for plant use per foot of soil depth. If plant roots go two feet deep, they would have four inches of available water. From this 2.5 inches of "rain," only .05 inches would be available for the crop.

The farmers' problem is to get this soil in such a condition that it will take in all the rain that falls. Vegetative methods may be used. Deep rooted legumes and grasses will hold the soil open so that the rate of water intake will be increased. The added organic matter furnished by the legumes and grasses will increase the water holding capacity and fertility holding capacity of the soil.

On fields that have much slope, a combination of vegetative and mechanical practices are needed to get all the water into the ground. A terrace system will slow the velocity of the run-off and a good vegetative cover will keep the soil in condition to hold more water for plant use.

Registration of Six-Year Olds For Fall School Term Friday

Wiley Loughmiller, principal of the Ada Henderson elementary school, stressed the importance of parents registering their six year olds for the coming school term at the Yoe High school Gymnasium from 2:30 until 3:45 p.m. Friday.

The necessity of registration is greater this year than ever before, he stated, due to the fact that the students will be going into a new building and arrangements for classrooms and teachers must be made as soon as possible.

This year there were 105 students in the four first grade sections, and school administrations are expecting about 10 more students to be listed in Fridays registration, which will necessitate another section next year.

He added that it will not be necessary for parents to present inoculation records or birth certificates of the new school agers Friday although they can be presented if the parents wish and they will not have to make another trip to the school at a later date to present the documents.

The certificate and a record of the small pox vaccination must be presented to school authorities before the child can enter school this next year.

Principal Loughmiller urged that all parents with children who will be of school age by this coming September be at the Gym Friday afternoon to register them for the coming year so that the necessary arrangements can be made, and enough books and supplies purchased to cover the enrollment.

Milam One of 22 Designated As Disaster Areas Following Tornadoes

Milam county was among 22 Texas counties designated as disaster areas as a result of recent tornadoes by Wendell B. Barnes, Administrator of the Small Business Administration in Washington, D. C., J. F. Matchett, Dallas Regional Director of the SBA announced this week.

Falls, Robertson and Williamson counties were also included on this list.

"The action by the SBA makes persons suffering property damage in these areas as a result of tornadoes eligible for disaster loans to assist them in rebuilding their homes or other buildings.

"The interest rate on disaster loans is 3 per cent for home construction or repair and 5 per cent for business loans. The maximum maturity date on disaster loans is 20 years on housing for personal occupancy and 10 years on all others, Mr. Matchett explained.

"This action was taken under the Small Business Act of 1953 for the purpose of rebuilding and replacing property to relieve the distress and hardships attendant upon the tornadoes. Accordingly, such loans will not be required to meet standards which would not otherwise be applicable, Mr. Matchett said.

"Applications from persons and firms in the disaster areas for disaster loans will be considered on an individual basis, Mr. Matchett added. "Matchett said the SBA is cooperating closely with William A. McGill, State Coordinator, Division of Defense and Disaster Relief in Austin in determining the necessity of declaring disaster areas because of storms or other catastrophes."

County Schools Enrollment For 1954 - 55 Shows 180 Increase

Contrary to the belief of the general public, Hinton H. Pruitt, county superintendent, announced today, school enrollments will not be much larger next year than in the present term.

This figure includes all of those who will be six years old prior to the beginning of the next school term in September.

Enrollment in the Independent Schools in this district are as follows: Cameron No. 901 (white) 1237 in comparison with 1220 last year, Cameron No. 901 (colored) 373 as in comparison with 358 in 1953-54; Gause No. 902 (white) 142, last year 139, Gause No. 902 (colored) 105, with 108 last year; Milano No. 903 (white) 273, 286 last year; Milano No. 903 (colored) 71, with 93 last year; Rockdale No. 904 (white) 1010, with 865 last year; Rockdale No. 904 (colored), 209 with 200 last year; Thorndale No. 905 (white) 455 in comparison with 435 last year and Thorndale No. 905 (colored) 24 with 24 last year.

of the 21 American POW's in Korea who turned their backs on America for communism had any record of scouting in his background. General Clarke is at present the Commanding General of "I" Corps in Korea.

Facts like these demonstrate the value of Boy Scouting training. To provide this training for the increasing number of Scouts in the Heart O' Texas Council, the Boy Scout Building Campaign is appealing for $200,000. This appeal, the first in the 30 year Council History, is for the purpose of providing improvements and additional facilities at Camp Tahuaya near Belton. The campaign is being made locally and throughout the nine counties of the Heart O' Texas Council Area during April and May.

A contribution to the Boy Scout Building Campaign is an investment in better trained, responsible leaders for the future. As the U. S. Attorney's office pointed out, a boy who has reaped the benefits of Scout training is less liable to end up in difficulties with the law. As General Clarke has pointed out, boys with Scout background don't desert their country for communism. Every dollar invested now in Scouting will help some youngster out of trouble or alien hands in the future. No other investment will pay greater dividends than that.

Rev. John Solomon, pastor of First Presbyterian Church has accepted the Chairmanship of the Boy Scout Building Campaign here. Gene Blake is heading the special gifts division.

Aside from the regular camp sessions there will be conducted this year for the first time an

SMITH — take care of the needs of today. "In realization of this we have tried to conduct the affairs of the county government on an efficient, businesslike and energetic basis. While this approach is no way to win a popularity contest it produces concrete results for the general welfare.

"We have placed emphasis upon the necessity of accommodation and encouraging the growing industrialization of our county. The importance of Aluminum Company of America to Milam County is demonstrated by the fact that its annual payroll is in excess of $5,000,000, larger than the total value of our annual cotton crop. It affords splendid job opportunities for our people, and is our largest taxpayer.

"That an adequate road system is essential to the maintenance of our economy is not open to dispute. Convinced of this we established the policy of learning to know key Highway Department people and working with them aggressively in the accomplishment of road projects. During the past two years more road work has been put in process in Milam County than was accomplished during the whole preceding 20 years; and even more work is scheduled for the immediate future. The results of this policy and effort can now be verified by the "eyeball test," since almost every part of the county is beginning to reflect general highway improvement.

"We have accelerated the farm-to-market road program in an effort to pull up some of the slack accumulated in the past. The Highway Department gave Milam County 20 percent more funds in its last two F-M road programs, and has indicated that this practice will be continued until we catch up with our neighboring counties.

"Other matters within our jurisdiction, of a routine nature, have been attended with courtesy and promptness, so that all affairs of this office are current.

"We are not unmindful of the fact that in our desire to be progressive and in our eagerness to accomplish something worthwhile we have made some mistakes. We acknowledge them; but we believe that our experience, including the mistakes, will enable us to render better service in the future.

"To our well-meaning but frequently misinformed critics we say this: We would much prefer to have your encouragement and help. Won't you lay aside matters of personality and join with us in our efforts to make our county a better place in which to live?"

YOE HIGH — The School Board, at the commencement exercises on the Athletic Field on May 24.

Milam Easter Seal Campaign Completed Saturday, May 1

A resounding thank you to the community for its "Splendid" participation in the 1954 Easter Seal campaign, which was concluded May 1, was made by Mrs. R. J. Woodum, co-chairman, in behalf of the crippled children of Milam County.

A grand total of $1,087.70 was collected during the drive, one of the largest amounts donated in many years according to Mrs. Woodum and Mrs. Carl Black, chairman of the Childs Welfare Society for Milam County.

Treasurer Richard Williams reported that although the drive is officially over some funds are still arriving and will be accepted and appreciated for the next two weeks when the funds will be sent to the Milam County Crippled Childrens society.

Mrs. Black said, "We are sincerely grateful for such public spirited cooperation. Our contributors have shown they do care about all of the crippled children in our area and we shall certainly do everything in our power to maintain and develop the services these children need.

"Last week there were three children sent to doctors for examination and treatment, and this is just about our weekly average. Needless to say, this requires a sizeable amount of money; so if there is anyone that would like to make a contribution at any time we, and the crippled children, will greatly appreciate their concern."

Mrs. Woodum commented on the outstanding backing the campaigning received, in short she said, "Residents of the city of Cameron certainly did us proud!"

Assisting in the drive were the members of the Three-Arts Club who mailed the appeal letters, the Civic Garden Club which was in charge of the school packet campaign, the Business and Professional Women who sold the Easter lilies, the Theatres which showed educational Easter Seal film and all of the individuals who contributed so generously.

Anyone who has not made their contribution and would like to add a donation can see or write to Mrs. Carl Black at the Jail or to Richard Williams at the First National Bank.

LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER COMES OUT WITH PLAN TO SETTLE ARGUMENT OVER RIGID-FLEXIBLE FARM PRICES

Editor's note: The Little River Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Little River has a novel idea this week which we offer for what it's worth.

Dear editor:

I know that with so many important matters bothering Congress, such as the Indo-China matter, K. P. duty for Private Schine, how big the hydrogen bomb ought to be, and other things which require so much thought, I'm ashamed to devote any of mine to farmin. It's sort of out-of-palce to be talkin about the farm problem at all, with world-shaking problems on every hand, but since I figure the farm problem will be here after the others are settled, in fact, if the hydrogen bomb gets out of hand the farm problem may be the only one confrontin mankind, or that portion of him still left, and I thought I would give you the benefit of my thinkin, to save Congress the trouble.

As I understand the problem Congress is now worryin over what to do about farm price supports. Should they be rigid or flexible.

Accordin to Sec. Benson's ideas, price supports ought to be flexible, but there are a lot of people in favor of keepin them rigid.

Under the flexible system, opponents argue, a man might work all year on a crop, take it to town, and discover the market is so limber he's wound up in the hole. On the other hand, Sec. Benson argues that if we keep a rigid, guaranteed price, the surplusses will keep on mountin and it'll break the government.

Now when it comes to a choice between me or the government bein busted, I hate to make a choice as I ain't in favor of either proposition.

I have thought the whole thing over though and I believe the trouble is that Sec. Benson has the right terms, flexible and rigid price supports but flexible workin hours.

Rigid price supports with rigid workin hours is no better than workin hours. It's these extremists that keep the country in hot water all the time. A little give and take is what this country needs.

My proposal, rigid prices, flexible hours, ought to satisfy all sides in this controversy, and if you think it has any merit I wish you'd send it on the Department of Agriculture and to Congress and let's settle this thing once and for all.

Your faithfully,
J. A.

Boy Scout Building Campaign Starts

Rev. John Solomon, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and a long time civic leader has accepted the Chairmanship of the Boy Scout Building Campaign.

The Campaign, which will be held from April 23 to May 22 is seeking to raise $200,000 to provide camping facilities for the Heart O' Texas Council. Heart O' Texas includes nine counties in Central Texas.

Proceeds will be used to develop adequate facilities at Camp Tahuaya located near Belton. Improved and expanded facilities at the camp will relieve the present crowded condition and make room for the inevitable future enrollment growth.

These facilities will be utilized by local scouts, as well as more than 7,500 boys and adult leaders who are members of the council's 223 chartered units.

Mr. Solomon has been interested in scouting for many years.

In accepting the local chairmanship, Mr. Solomon pointed out that only basic, essential needs at Camp Tahuaya will be provided with funds raised in the campaign.

"This is the first capital funds appeal which Heart O' Texas Council has made for Camp Tahuaya since its beginning almost a third of a century ago. Facilities at the camp are in a deplorable condition and it is absolutely essential that every friend of scouting contribute generously to this worthy campaign."

The campaign is now under way with Gene Blake, longtime friend of scouting, heading the special gifts division.

Phone Company's Straight Lines Gives Better Service

New straight telephone lines are now being put in home desiring the service in the north-east section of town, Milton Fuqua, Wire Chief for the local Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, announced today.

The new cable, which was recently installed to this area, has eliminated the necessity of party lines and, Fuqua reported, is giving much better service than the open wires previously used.

He said that the number of phones in this vicinity vary monthly, but that almost everyone desiring phone service has been accommodated.

Assisting him in the Plant department are Valon Fogle, Wesley Fogle and Millard Fincher.

New Generating Capacity Highlights TP&L 1953 Report

Construction of new generating capacity, expansion of other electric facilities, industrial and agricultural development, and Company growth in service were highlights of the Texas Power & Light Company's 1953 annual report, issued this week.

Completion of the new 65,000-kilowatt capacity Lake Creek steam generating plant near Waco is mentioned by W. W. Lynch TP&L president, in his letter summarizing the Company's operations. During the year, construction continued on two other new power plants. A plant in Red River county is scheduled for completion this year; another, in Collin county, will go into service in 1955.

Present improvement and expansion of facilities are part of TP&L's continuing program of providing for the electric power needs of a growing area. Mr. Lynch pointed out. He said construction expenditures for 1953 amounted to $20,237,835, bringing the total amount of such expenditures to $77,990,319 for the past five years. The long range expansion program is designed to build ahead of the increasing demand for electric power by existing as well as anticipated new industries. The year 1953 saw several more large manufacturing concerns located in the 52-county service area of TP&L.

Total operating revenues, in 1953, amounted to $41,124,027. The increase of $7,428,771 over 1952 included $5,437,535 in non-recurring revenues for interim power sales to the Aluminum Company of America, pending completion of their power plant, Mr. Lynch pointed out. Operating expenses increased 28.6 per cent and taxes were up 17.9 per cent.

Paying tribute to the Company employees' safety efforts, the report cites the fact that, in 1953, TP&L finished first among the large power companies in the National Safety Council Contest. Working 5,721,933 manhours during the year, the employees had only nine lost time accidents, none of which was fatal. More than one-third of TP&L's 2,700 employees have been with the Company longer than 10 years.

Correct Posture
Week Set Over
Nation For May 1-7

The most neglected structure in the United States today is the human body, according to Dr. J. R. Parker, local chairman of Correct Posture Week (May 1-7).

No person is immune to the effects of poor posture which stems from neglecting the health of the spine. Regardless of age or occupation, the person who walks, sits, or stands incorrectly at his job and at home is affecting his health, Dr. Parker said.

Research has shown that more than 50 per cent of the population has postural defects and the percentage runs as high as three fourths in some children's groups. Occupations, child training, and organic structure cause poor posture—all could improve their health by correcting posture faults.

"Seemingly trivial spinal injuries when uncorrected can have far-reaching effects inasmuch as the nerve energy supply is diminished. When a person slumps at his desk, in the car, or at home before a television set, he is cramping the heart, lungs, liver, stomach and even the circulatory system, keeping them from performing properly," Dr. Parker pointed out.

When the energy supply is below normal and body organs cannot function normally, the cells of the body are weakened and become under-nourished, quickly becoming susceptible to disease, he explained.

Dr. Parker stated that correct posture should not be something learned in school and forgotten, but that it should be considered an everyday health duty.

The correction of common postural faults can be achieved by concentrated effort; however, if the trouble lies in misalignment of the spine or other organic distortions, a specialist on the spine should be consulted, Dr. Parker advised.

Correct Posture Week is sponsored in Texas for the fiftieth straight year by the Chiropractic Public Health Committee of the Texas State Chiropractic Association.
